In modern football it is an accepted theory that no team can be successful unless it has a triple threat. The Princeton team of this year seems cut on the Lorin Farr Park field next lacking in that respect. That is one of the reasons why the Tigers are figured to have a tough season by the experts. Last season the Tigers had a great little quarterback in Lourie, He could run, kiek and hur! the forward pass. There is no Lourie at Princeton this year. Bergen at quarter doesn't measure up to his class. Cleares, whose great run saved the day for the Tigers against Colgaie, arely can run and is a find.
